New Multi-Discipline Conference Format

In the interest of providing the very best multi-discipline gang training, the CGIA, the ATF, the FBI, and the L.A. County Sheriff's Department have joined together in this cooperative effort to bring this training to a national forum. This year's conference will provide a training setting for a national perspective to a full service management of street gangs and their criminal activity. This training will explore approaches in enforcement, intervention, and prevention. All training for attending personnel, no matter the discipline, will be the most current and relevant available in the nation.

Multi-Track Program

Executive Track	Community Programs Track	Law Enforcement Track
Designed for National Law Enforcement Executives. Programming will be designed to address gang-related issues at the executive level. Elected officials from local, state, and federal government seeking information of gang programming are also included.	Designed for Directors of community-based programs. Educators who offer prevention and intervention programs are also invited to these sessions.	The traditional CGIA law enforcement gang training will continue to be offered as a separate and distinctive track. This training is designed for law enforcement personnel, corrections, parole, probation, prosecutors and other criminal justice agencies. Attendance will be STRICTLY LIMITED TO LAW ENFORCEMENT PROFESSIONALS.

NOTE: There will be an optional Basic Gang Understanding class offered on the early registration day, Monday, June 28, 2010 from 3:00 PM to 6:00 PM. The class is included in the registration fee and the hours will be included in the overall POST training points needed by law enforcement personnel. All attending disciplines are invited to attend this class.
